2006

Taste the flavor of Northcenter!

Saturday, June 10— Noon-10pm

Sunday, June 11th—Noon to 8pm

Join 20,000 people along Lincoln Ave. between Irving Park Road and Warner Ave for the best mouth-watering barbecue and the most unique music lineup of any festival in the City! Ribfest 2006 offers music on two stages (a combination of honky tonk, alt country and Indie Pop), a Senior Oasis & a Kid's Corner for families to enjoy.

Barbecue sauce will permeate the air, but this year's menu will not focus solely on ribs. Northcenter restaurants are expanding the menu as they compete for awards such as "Fest Fave" and "Hot Off the Grill" at what is sure to be Chicago's largest north side cookout.

HISTORY

Ribfest was born in the Summer of 1999 when Ed Schwind (Schwind Realty), Ray Quinn (Martyrs') and Michael Boucher (Smokin' Woody's) hosted a community cookout in the Corus Bank parking lot.

The following year, with the assistance of Alderman Gene Schulner, Melissa Kline and the Northcenter Chamber (NCC) launched Ribfest as an annual two-day event on Lincoln Ave.
